Deputy Director
National Security Agency
3801 Nebraska Avenue, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear John:

I feel both touched and flattered that you wished a picture of me, and I take pleasure in sending you the one which I personally like the best, although I will be glad to give you a choice if you should prefer some other.

With sincere regards,

Sincerely,

W. DULLES

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. DULLES:

As you will see from the attached note from Knight McMahan, General Ackerman has asked for a photograph of you. We have been informed that while General Ackerman plans to hang this picture in his office, it is to be considered a personal possession of his which he plans to take with him wherever he goes. If you approve, we will forward him the attached print which you may possibly wish to inscribe in some manner.
